

Michigan CSI

(Michigan Cyber Safety Initiative)

Attorney General Mike Cox

Find and circle the answers to the following questions hidden within the puzzle. The words may be forward, backward, horizontal, vertical, or diagonal. If you need a few hints, look at the handouts that were sent home with you.

- Before going online, you should always ask for Permission.
- Chatrooms are one of the most dangerous places for children to go on the Internet.
- The Attorney General has three Internet Safety Rules.
- The first rule is: I Keep Safe.
- The second rule is: I Keep Away.
- The third rule is: I Keep Telling.
- Every new person I meet only on the Internet is a Stranger.
- There are five types of personal information that I promise to keep safe from the Internet. They are:
a. Name b Phone Number c Address d A Picture of myself e School Name.
- I will tell a parent or trusted adult anytime something I see on the Internet makes me Uncomfortable.
- It is called Cyber bullying when people make fun of others or try to hurt people's feelings in cyber space.
- Predators may try to meet with me in person, and they try to get me to keep it a Secret from those who love me.
- The Attorney General gave me an online safety Contract for me and my parent/guardian to sign.

For an extra challenge, try to find the bonus words hidden within the puzzle:

Attorney General

Cyber bullying

Online

Predator

Safety Rules

Trust

Grades 4-5 Homework